

EnterMission Opportunity

I am Caleb Kerr from Discover Christian Church, and I have the opportunity to join EnterMission. It is a Gap Year program involving students practicing discipleship through missions. For the first semester, we will be training at Johnson University and serving various ministries throughout the United States. The second semester involves serving in two different ministry locations overseas.

EnterMission is a ministry of ICOM (the International Conference on Missions). $1,200.000 per month for the 10 months plus international travel expenses are needed for the program. All donations are receipted and tax-deductible through ICOM, and you can either make a one-time donation or a recurring donation.

➔ Why I'm Going

I was personally drawn to ministry over the past few years and felt a calling. I was fortunate to have a very strong youth group and leaders who were very supportive, giving me many opportunities to volunteer and support the church locally and out of state. Approaching graduation, I had decided that I wanted to go into ministry. EnterMission will provide me with the proper experience and spiritual growth, and allow me to help others in a way I couldn't before.
