

My Name is Fifi Shultz. I'm part of the New Hope Christian Church. I'm a class of 2025 graduate and this fall I have this opportunity to join a program called EnterMission, which is a ministry of ICOM (the International Conference on Missions). I will be taking a gap year to reflect on what the Lord has to offer for me next. I'm also looking forward to experiencing new cultures and exploring other states or countries. Having spent some years in Haiti has helped me open up to see that there is more in life that God has to offer. I'm hoping to explore God's world and hope to learn more over the Entermission adventure.

What is EnterMission?

"It is a commitment for young adults to dedicate 10 months of their lives to learn how to be the hands and feet of Jesus in both local and overseas settings. It's about learning resilience and dependence on God. It's about receiving the most up-to-date training in discipleship that requires time, energy and a willingness to be molded as they live and work in community. It's a hands-on approach to ministry formation; a trade-school of sorts that not only benefits our students but the churches they will return to upon completion."

- Chris Irwin EnterMission Director

During the Fall Semester I will be staying at Johnson University in Knoxville TN. Every few weeks we will be traveling throughout the United States, working with several ministries serving people in different groups. After Christmas, we will spend our second semester serving in two different ministry locations overseas.
